The course will explain the principles in detail and give you the practical skills needed to start teaching Sathya Sai EHV as part of PSHE, RE, Assembly or Citizenship classes, either as a teacher or as a volunteer support assistant in your local school. Also, many participants say they find it an excellent training in Life Skills for themselves.

Preference will be given to those who are willing to offer voluntary support to the SSEHV programme. Full information on Open College Network accreditation and the work it involves will be given during the course.
